Mauricio Arboleda Joins AGM as COO

Mauricio Arboleda
Chief Operating Officer

With over 23 years of experience in entrepreneurial and corporate environments, Mauricio brings extensive knowledge in high-growth global business transformation across multiple industries and geographies to AGM in his new role as chief operating officer. As COO, through leadership, team building and execution among others, he will build upon our continued success and help evolve AGM's footprint in the market by profitably expanding our business. Prior to his position with AGM, Mauricio was executive vice president of strategic consulting at Paradigm where he consolidated their worldwide geosciences consulting activities into a high value business yielding a 4x increase in profits year-on-year. Earlier he delivered similar results as senior vice president of sales and operations at Earth Decision, which grew four-fold in revenue during his tenure and was acquired by Paradigm in 2006. Before joining Earth Decision, he was vice president of the InfoSec Division at Schlumberger where he oversaw the global information security offerings including software R&D, professional services and marketing resulting in triple digit annual growth rates. Previously, he held positions at companies such as Holland Chemical International, Mistral Trade Corporation and Nielsen Marketing Research. Mauricio earned his B.B.A. from the Universidad de los Andes in Bogotá, Colombia.
